

Scalars 2015

Contribution ID : 61

Vacuum stability from vector dark matter

Content :

We study a model of a vector dark matter coming from the complex scalar Higgs portal with an additional $U(1)$ gauge symmetry. Renormalisation group equations at the 2-loop level are used to analyse perturbativity and influence of the dark gauge coupling on the vacuum stability. We discuss LHC and LEP constraints on the additional Higgs-like scalar present in the model and bounds coming from the Planck data and direct detection experiments.

Primary authors : Mr. DUCH, Mateusz (University of Warsaw) ; GRZADKOWSKI, Bohdan (University of Warsaw) ; Mr. MCGARRIE, Moritz (University of Warsaw)

Co-authors :

Presenter : Mr. DUCH, Mateusz (University of Warsaw)

Session classification : --not yet classified--

Track classification : --not yet classified--

Type : --not specified--